

Digital Resources

Volume One

To help our artists stay creative and connected, we are introducing a digital resource newsletter to share sites, ideas, and inspiration accessible from anywhere.

PLEASE let us know what you enjoy most! What else would you like to see? To do so, contact boo@studiobythetracks.org. We value your feedback and it helps us serve you better!

Explore >>>

Google Arts and Culture is a HUGE resource for discovering, exploring, and interacting with artwork from around the world. They have partnered with over 2,000 cultural institutions from 80 countries to create a doorway to the art, history, people and wonders of the world.

Explore on your computer with the website:

CLICK HERE FOR GOOGLE ARTS AND CULTURE

Explore on your phone or tablet with the app:

CLICK HERE FOR THE APP

Go Local >>>

Check out Monograph—an impressive digital series looking at creativity in Alabama hosted by PBS:

CLICK HERE FOR MONOGRAPH

PS- This might look familiar!

CLICK HERE FOR SBTT VIDEO

Take a Break >>>

Check out the Birmingham Museum of Art's unique mediation videos focusing on artwork found in the museum's collection:

CLICK HERE FOR BMA MEDITATION VIDEOS

Find Inspiration >>>

SBTT is not the only organization serving neuro-diverse artists! Find some inspiration in the work of these amazing West Coast artists. Creative Growth is a non-profit based in Oakland, California that serves artists within the disabled community:

CLICK HERE FOR CREATIVE GROWTH ARTISTS

Some Art History >>>

Smarthistory is the most visited art history resource in the world. The site's free digital content features images and expertise from leading scholars, making the history of art accessible and engaging to more people:

CLICK HERE FOR SMARTHISTORY

Everyday Art >>>

Three ways to use recycled magazine and newspapers to make art:

Monochromatic Collage: CLICK HERE FOR TUTORIAL

Newspaper 5 Ways: CLICK HERE FOR TUTORIAL

Wall Art: CLICK HERE FOR INSTRUCTIONS